CELEBRITY SILHOUETTE

At sea, take the time to recharge before the next adventure. Relax by the pool, indulge in a spa treatment, savor culinary delights, or explore the onboard amenities until we arrive at our next amazing destination.

Fort Lauderdale, Florida

In the 1800s, William Lauderdale built a fort. Today, 16 million visitors come for the beaches, golf courses, and cruises. The promenade, just 15 minutes from the port, leads to the Atlantic. Las Olas Boulevard offers cafés, shops, and shows. Explore history at Stranahan House or History Fort Lauderdale. Take a Segway or boat tour to see Millionaire's Row. Visit Flamingo Gardens in the Everglades, home to wildlife and exotic plants. Shop at Galleria or Sawgrass Mills, and try Floribbean cuisine, seafood, and key lime pie.

Kralendijk, Bonaire

Kralendijk, the peaceful capital of Bonaire in the Dutch Antilles, is known for its pastel stucco houses.

The island's main draw is diving, with a marine park that stretches along its entire coast and down to 200 feet.

Bonaire cruises also feature flamingos, hiking, and the Caribbean's only barefoot casino. In the Rincon area, you'll find restaurants serving local dishes like Frikandel, a fried sausage, and Yambo, a Creole gumbo stew.

Oranjestad, Aruba

Aruba's capital is perfect for walking, with colorful townhouses and inviting patios. The trade winds are great for windsurfing and kiteboarding. Enjoy the soft sand and warm waters, with spas, restaurants, and bars nearby.

Snorkelers love the coral reefs and shipwrecks like Antilla. You can also take a catamaran trip for sailing and lunch at Pelican Pier or visit De Palm Island for water slides.

Shop at boutiques and Renaissance Mall, and enjoy dining options from French cuisine to fresh seafood and ostrich burgers.

Willemstad, Curacao

Discover Willemstad's vibrant Dutch cityscape, featuring a picturesque waterfront and colonial buildings.

Visit the 17th-century Fort Amsterdam, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Swim with dolphins, dive in beautiful reefs, or explore Hato Caves. Enjoy a sunset with blue curaçao at Landhuis Chobolobo, famous for its liqueur. Savor Curaçao's cuisine, blending Indonesian and Dutch flavors, and shop for Delft figurines and cheese in Punda's markets and designer items in Otrobanda.
