Natural wonder.

You have to walk the trails, admire the beauty of the cenotes and swim in their coves to reconnect with the marine origin of the peninsula. In this place named "where water is born", as the Mayas called it, the visitor can enjoy snorkeling or relax surrounded by nature.

Location: Tulum 1994

VALUE OF
USD $420

An underground world of adventure.

The Riviera Maya will never be the same when its underworld is discovered and is viewed from the air. This park invites you to become explorer and navigate in its prehistoric caves, feel the freshness of waterfalls, jungle tour in an amphibious vehicle and slide the highest zip lines in the region.

Location: Destino Xcaret 2009

VALUE OF
USD $330

Magic of the past. Charm of the present.

Chichén Itzá and Valladolid are two treasures that are worth knowing recommended by expert guides. The premium services, the quality of the information and the exquisite cuisine offered at La Casona take the visitor through a genuine experience that creates significant memories of Mayan culture.

Location: Yucatán 2010
